ACT OF DEDICATION OF THE HUMAN RACE TO JESUS CHRIST KING

Most sweet Jesus,
Redeemer of the human race,
look down upon us humbly prostrate before You.
We are Yours, and Yours we wish to be;
but to be more surely united with You,
behold each one of us freely consecrates himself today to Your Most Sacred Heart.

Many indeed have never known You;
many, too, despising Your precepts, have rejected You.
Have mercy on them all, most merciful Jesus,
and draw them to Your Sacred Heart.

Be King, O Lord,
not only of the faithful who have never forsaken You,
but also of the prodigal children who have abandoned You;
grant that they may quickly return to their Father's house,
lest they die of wretchedness and hunger.
Be King of those who are deceived by erroneous opinions,
or whom discord keeps aloof,
and call them back to the harbor of truth
and the unity of faith,
so that soon there may be but one flock and one Shepherd.
Grant, O Lord, to Your Church assurance of freedom and immunity from harm;
give tranquility of order to all nations;
make the Earth resound from pole to pole with one cry:
Praise to the Divine Heart that wrought our salvation;
to it be glory and honor for ever.

Amen.

National Vocation Awareness Week

National Vocation Awareness Week, celebrated November 3-9, 2024, is an annual week-long celebration of the Catholic Church in the United States dedicated to promoting vocations to the priesthood, diaconate, and consecrated life through prayer and education, and to renew our prayers and support for those who are considering one of these particular vocations.

NVAW began in 1976 when the U. S. bishops designated the 28th Sunday of the year for NVAW. In 1997, this celebration was moved to coincide with the Feast of the Baptism of the Lord, which fell on January 13 in 2013. Beginning in 2014, NVAW was moved to the first full week of November.

Prayer for Vocations

God our Father, we thank You for calling men and women to serve in Your Son's Kingdom as priests, deacons, and consecrated persons. Send Your Holy Spirit to help others to respond generously and courageously to Your call. May our community of faith support vocations of sacrificial love in our youth and young adults. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns with You in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, forever and ever.

Amen.

Pastor's Corner

One aspect of our Christian and Catholic Faith is our belief in the communion of saints. Just as we believe in the gift of eternal life that comes to us through Christ, we also profess that, because of that gift, we are able to remain in relationship with those who have gone before us in faith. Each year we begin the month of November concentrating on this reality as All Saints Day and All Souls Day.

We remember and honor the saints for their exemplary lives and holiness. We seek their intercession as they watch and inspire us to constantly attempt to embrace the call to holiness.

We also honor our loved ones and others who have gone before us. In remembering them, we are able to be connected with them knowing their lives have changed; not ended. We proclaim this in the Preface used most often at a Funeral Mass.

It is true that we experience mixed emotions at this time as sadness is also present but through the intercession of the Saints and the communion of saints, we are able to move to the experience of hope as we look forward to being with them forever.

God's blessings!

All Saints Day - The Triduum of Saints

In the first ages, during the night before every feast [saint or event], a vigil was kept. In the evening the faithful assembled in the place or church where the feast was to be celebrated and prepared themselves by prayers, readings from the Offices of Vespers and Matins [Liturgy of the Hours], and sometimes also by hearing a sermon. On such occasions, as on fast days in general, Mass also was celebrated in the evening, before the Vespers of the following day. Towards morning the people dispersed to the streets and houses near the church, to wait for the solemn services of the forenoon. This vigil was a regular institution of Christian life and was defended and highly recommended by St. Augustine and St. Jerome (see Pleithner, "Aeltere Geschichte des Breviergebetes", pp. 223 sq.).

The morning intermission gave rise to grave abuses; the people caroused and danced in the streets and halls around the church. St. Jerome speaks of these improprieties. [Think of what we see now with Mardi Gras before Lent begins!]

As the number of saints grew it became no longer possible to celebrate every saint on his or her particular day and in their particular area. In the fourth century, neighboring dioceses began to interchange feasts, to transfer relics, to divide them, and to join in a common feast; as is shown by the invitation of St. Basil of Caesarea (379) to the bishops of the province of Pontus. Frequently groups of martyrs suffered on the same day, which naturally led to a joint commemoration. In the persecution of Diocletian the number of martyrs became so great that a separate day could not be assigned to each. But The Church, feeling that every martyr should be venerated, appointed a common day for all. The first trace of this we find in Antioch on the Sunday after Pentecost. We also find mention of a common day in a sermon of St. Ephrem the Syrian (373), and in the 74th homily of St. John Chrysostom (407). At first only martyrs and St. John the Baptist were honored by a special day. Other saints were added gradually, and increased in number when a regular process of canonization was established; still, as early as 411 there is in the Chaldean calendar a "Commemoratio Confessorum" for the Friday after Easter.

In the West Boniface IV, 13 May, 609, or 610, consecrated the Pantheon in Rome to the Blessed Virgin and all the martyrs, ordering an anniversary. Gregory III (731-741) consecrated a chapel in the Basilica of St. Peter to all the saints and fixed the anniversary for 1 November. A basilica of the Apostles already existed in Rome, and its dedication was annually remembered on 1 May. Gregory IV (827-844) extended the celebration on 1 November to the entire Church. The vigil seems to have been held as early as the feast itself. The octave was added by Sixtus IV (1471-84).

Choose Life: Prayer for the Child in the Womb

Lord Jesus, You are the source and lover of life.
Reawaken in us respect for every human life.

Help us to see in each child the marvelous work of our Creator.

Open our hearts to welcome every child as a unique and wonderful gift.

Guide the work of doctors, nurses and midwives.

May the life of a mother and her baby in the womb be equally cherished and respected.

Help those who make our laws to uphold the uniqueness and sacredness of every human life, from the first moment of conception to natural death.

Give us wisdom and generosity to build a society that cares for all.

Together with Mary, Your Mother, in whose womb You took on our human nature.

Help us to choose life in every decision we take.

We ask this in the joyful hope of eternal life with You in the communion of the Blessed Trinity. Amen

Our Lady of Knock, pray for us.

All the Saints of Ireland, pray for us.

Not only a prayer for life but a thought to how we vote. Please vote for life from conception to a natural end in God's time.

The time for the 2024 Giving Trees is fast approaching!

Our tradition is to set the trees up Thanksgiving weekend, and decorate them with gift tags for the items needed.

Simply pick a tag, buy a gift or gifts; then bring the gift back by Sunday, December 8, 2024.

We request that the gifts not be wrapped. They should simply be placed in gift bags. The agencies need to see the gifts to identify where they are most needed.

There will be a tree in each lobby, or maybe just one lobby. I haven't decided yet.

Please have the agency gifts back by the 1:30pm Mass on Sunday, December 8, 2024.

On December 8th, you may start decorating the Giving Tree with hats, gloves, socks and scarves to be donated.

The hats, gloves, etc. may be brought in until the end of January 2025.

These are three possible recipients this year:

- 1) Bishop Griffin Center
- 2) PDHC [Pregnancy Decision Health Center]
- 3) Women's Care Center

If you have an organization that you would like to add, please let me know and we can discuss the possibility. I would need your help sorting the gifts and making the delivery to the new organization.

Thank you to all who participate. Each agency is so thankful to receive the gifts, and are appreciative of all that you do.

I also appreciate all that you do for our recipients. It's like Christmas for me to see your purchases, especially the baby clothes!

Thank you so much for helping make Christmas a very blessed time for so many persons in need.

Parish Clean-Up Day - September 21, 2024

Nearing the end of a very hot spell a group of intrepid workers arrived at Church of Our Lady to sort out many areas of the church spaces that we have not cleaned for quite some time. A giant dumpster was delivered to provide space for all the unusable items we uncovered in the cleaning and all the outside trash that needed to be removed.

John Laibe coordinated the outside activity. Anne Grossman-Peters did much of the pre-planning to coordinate which areas inside we were going to attack; she also provided check-lists to help the workers. The crew worked from 9am to 2pm. The Knights provided lunch, including some great pizzas, sandwiches, salads and desserts!

Many thanks to our volunteers: Fr. Leo joined us for lunch! Paul put on the Ohio State game for the many fans who gave their time to help us out.

OUR LADY OF AMERICA GOES TO GROUND ZERO

September 10, 2007: New York City. The journey of the statue of Our Lady of America began at the Basilica of St. Louis, King, in Saint Louis, Missouri on Saturday, September 8th. Concluding with Benediction offered by Fr. Elias Mary Mills, F.I., She immediately began Her journey towards New York City. The statue was accepted from the volunteer cross-country driver into the care of firemen from the Jackson Mills Fire Department. In addition to other priests, the statue was blessed by Fr. Anthony Forte, of the Newark Diocese, and Chaplin of the Newark Fire Department. From there the journey into the World Trade Center neighborhood began in preparation for the 6th Anniversary of September 11, 2001.

While still in Her protective box, She was transported to the Holland Tunnel by the Jackson Mills N.J. Fire Department, where they were met by officials from the Port Authority of New York and New Jersey. She received a police escort through the Holland Tunnel and directly to the Church of St. Peter, one block from WTC – Ground Zero.

Statue escorts were from the Jackson Mills Fire Department, District 4; Raymond Tremor, Michael Ruggiero, Daniel Conte Raymond Tremor III and Stanley O'Brien Jr. From the Port Authority of NY and NJ, Patrolman Joseph Molina.

When thanked by volunteers of the Our Lady of America Center, Officer Joseph Molina said with a smile, "Anything for Mary!"

As the firemen carried Her up the stairs of the Church of St. Peter, Father Kevin Madigan, pastor, received Our Lady. Bystanders were watching the firemen carrying this precious statue, knowing something very significant was occurring.

The firemen were taken aback with excitement and wonder as they first laid eyes on Our Lady as the protective box was opened.

It was as though Our Lady was releasing Her graces for getting Her to where Her Son is truly present for all Her children and especially for the families of those that had been taken in the 9-11 attacks.

As She was carried into the church, She seemed to come alive. It was the powerful, commanding and gentle movement of Her reaching Her beloved Son and Her earthly spouse St. Joseph at the front side Altar of the sanctuary.

Befittingly, She was placed in the perfect position, crowned and placed on Her pedestal in front of St. Joseph's statue and the infant Child Jesus, which seemed to emanate an essence of joy that She had arrived to join them. The Holy Family radiated with joy, knowing of the graces available to America and the world through the gift of Our Lady of America!

The three day journey from St. Louis, Missouri was now complete!

Saint Josaphat

Feast Day: November 12

Bishop and Martyr

Patron Saint of Ukraine: 1580–1623

Invoked for the reunification of Eastern and Western Christians

Canonized by Pope Pius IX on June 29, 1867

Quote: You people of Vitebsk want to put me to death. You make ambushes for me everywhere, in the streets, on the bridges, on the highways, and in the marketplace. I am here among you as a shepherd, and you ought to know that I would be happy to give my life for you. I am ready to die for the holy union, for the supremacy of Saint Peter, and of his successor the Supreme Pontiff. ~Saint Josaphat

After the Great Schism in 1054, many Christians in the Eastern (Byzantine) Empire separated from the pope, creating the Orthodox Church. Over the centuries, some Eastern Churches reunited with Rome, including the Ruthenian Orthodox Church. In the 1596 Union of Brest, the majority of Ruthenian Orthodox bishops professed obedience to the pope while keeping their Slavic liturgical traditions, celebrating the Byzantine Liturgy, retaining married priests, maintaining their own canon law and church governance, and holding onto some theological distinctions within the Creed. John Kuncevyč was born in Volodymyr, in the Polish-Lithuanian Commonwealth, today's Ukraine. Baptized into the Orthodox Church, he received a good education. He served at church services, loved Slavic religious traditions, embraced penance and mortification, and prayed the Divine Office.

In 1604, eight years after his local diocese reunited with Rome, John entered religious life as a monk at the Monastery of Holy Trinity of the Order of Saint Basil the Great in Vilnius. He was given the religious name Josaphat. Ordained a Catholic priest in the Eastern Rite five years later, he remained at the monastery for the next eight years, becoming prior of his and several other monasteries.

Father Josaphat diligently studied Church history, the liturgy, and documents pertaining to Church unity. He continuously prayed the Jesus Prayer: "Lord Jesus Christ, Son of God, have mercy on me." Some of his brother monks said that he could even be heard whispering it as he slept.

Father Josaphat's prayer and study led him to firmly support the Union of Brest, and he did all he could to convince others to embrace union with Rome. Many sought his spiritual advice, and he encouraged many young men to become monks. He was nicknamed "Soul-snatcher" for persuading Orthodox holdouts and Calvinists to embrace Catholicism.

In 1617, Father Josaphat was ordained as the Bishop of Vitebsk and was elevated to the Archbishopric of Polotsk one year later. In that important see [diocese], the faithful, monks, and clergy remained divided about reunification with Rome. As archbishop, he issued a catechism for the clergy to memorize. He imposed discipline for priestly living, had large meetings to discuss pastoral initiatives, renewed church buildings, and opposed everyone who opposed unification.

Within two years of Josaphat's ordination as archbishop, Ruthenian Orthodox factions that refused to unify with Rome secretly gathered and ordained new Ruthenian Orthodox bishops, and an archbishop, setting up a second Church. The new Orthodox archbishop spread rumors that Josaphat planned to make the Church fully Latin, throwing out their Slavic traditions. Violence ensued, and even clergy battled clergy. In 1623, an Orthodox priest led a revolt, with some lay support, against the archbishop. With stones and sticks, they broke into his house, cornered Josaphat, beat him, slit his head with an ax, shot him, dragged his naked dead body through town, and threw him into the Dvina River. His death inspired Ruthenian Catholics to solidify unification with Rome.

In Memoriam

The Annual Memorial Mass

As a remembrance in honor of their fallen members, our local Knights of Columbus will have a Mass celebrated to honor the deceased members of Knights of Columbus #11188. It will take place at the 10:00^{am} Mass on Sunday, November 3rd. The Mass service will include special seating for the families of the past members, a reading of the names, a carnation for each family of a deceased member, and a procession lead by the 4th Degree Honor Guard to the Statue of Mary outside the church for the laying of a commemorative wreath.

Since the Knights of Columbus, Miraculous Medal Council 11188, was chartered in 1993, God has called home 41 of our Knights. We ask your continuing prayers for them, along with their families and loved ones who were left to grieve.

Prayer for our Nation (U.S.A)

God our Father, Giver of life,
we entrust the United States of America to Your loving care.

You are the rock on which this nation was founded.
You alone are the true source of our cherished rights to life,
liberty and the pursuit of happiness.

Reclaim this land for Your glory and dwell among Your people.

Send Your Spirit to touch the hearts of our nation's leaders. Open their minds to the great worth of human life and the responsibilities that accompany human freedom. Remind Your people that true happiness is rooted in seeking and doing Your will.

Through the intercession of Mary Immaculate,
Patroness of our land,
grant us the courage to reject the "culture of death."
Lead us into a new millennium of life.
We ask this through Christ Our Lord.

Amen
